OLD VIRGINIA BALL A GREAT SUCCESS

Dance in Convention Hall One of the Social Events of Exposition.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., November 21.—The Old Virginia ball, held in Convention Hall to-night, was one of the social events of the exposition season and was largely attended by out-of-town guests.

The hall was tastefully decorated in Virginia colors and Old Glory, and the display of potted plants and cut flowers, thanks to the generosity of exhibitors, was extremely beautiful.

The music was furnished by Ellery's Royal Italian Band, and was a distinctive feature of the evening.

The attendance from Norfolk, Tidewater Virginia, and a dozen or more other Virginia cities, was large. The chivalry and beauty of Richmond, Norfolk, Petersburg, Bristol, Lynchburg and a half-dozen other cities were represented by officials, sponsors and maids of honor.

Governor and Mrs. Swanson were present for a short time during the evening.

The floor committee in charge of the function were: G. T. Shepherd, R. H.
Sexton, Lieutenant E. C. Waddill, Jesse P. Essery, John R. Crown, Silas E.
Snyder, W. W. Whitfield, E. D. Weinschonk and Mayo Dudley. A number of matrons and young ladies of Norfolk assisted in receiving the guests and their entertainment. A light luncheon was served during the evening.

Among the out-of-town participants were:

From Pulaski—Mrs. O. P. Jordan, sponsor; Ellen Gilmer Painter, Elizabeth Graham Tate, Bess Howard, Polly McGavock Lloyd, Elizabeth S. Holmes, Annie B. Jordan and Nannie M. Tate, maids of honor. This party arrived at the exposition late yesterday afternoon.

LYNCHBURG COLLEGE.

Pleased That Randolph-Macon Woman's College Is Not to Be Denominational.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., November 21.— The action of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church in refusing to discontinue the Randolph-Macon Woman's College, of this city, in the effort to make it purely a denominational institution, has caused a general good feeling in Lynchburg, where the school is looked upon by people of all creeds as purely a Lynchburg institution. It was feared that the adoption of the ideas of Dr. Cannon by the conference would result in the injury to the college. There seems to be no doubt but that the matter would have gone to the courts if Dr. Cannon had won out in the conference.

The college was never so flourishing, as it has an enrolment of 400 young ladies now and hundreds have been refused admission since the present session began because of the lack of room.

MANY PETERSBURG PEOPLE AT EXPO.

CHECK FLASHER INDICTED

Sunday-school of West End Baptist Church Elects Officers.
Salvation Workers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, VA., November 21.— In honor of Petersburg Day at the Jamestown Exposition, a big crowd, including Mayor Jones, many members of the Board of Aldermen, Common Council and Chamber of Commerce, and other prominent citizens, left for the exposition at 8 o'clock this morning.
The public schools did not close, but permission to attend the celebration was granted to all children who applied. Several manufacturers shut down for the day, and no session of the Mayor's Court was held.

Rev. Mr. Edwards Popular.
Great regret is being expressed here that the Rev. W. H. Edwards, pastor of Market Street Methodist Church, has been removed by the conference to another field, having been appointed presiding elder of the Eastern Shore District. During his pastorate in this city, Mr. Edwards has greatly endeared himself to people of all denominations.

Check Flasher.
At the opening of the November term of the Hustings Court this morning W. B. Roebuck, the check flasher, who came here from Richmond several days ago, and after several successful performances, fled to Norfolk, was indicted on two charges of forgery, but the flasher has not yet been arrested.
He succeeded in getting a well-known manufacturer here to cash a $15 check by representing himself as the son of a business friend, and also secured a gold watch from Buchanan Brothers, Jewelers, by using another forged check. Chief of Police England recovered the watch, which was found in a Norfolk pawn shop.

Edward Hicks Johnson and Charles Walker, negroes, all pleaded guilty. Hicks was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary for larceny.
Johnson received two years for feloniously assaulting Mattie Barbee, the colored woman whom he beat over the head with an iron bar at Worth's pennery factory yesterday morning, while Walker received two years for housebreaking.

In a fight at Second and River Streets last night between a conductor of an electric car and a young man named Liebert, the latter is charged with painfully wounding the conductor with a rock. Liebert and his mother have been arrested and bailed to appear in the Mayor's Court to-morrow to answer the charge.

Sunday-School.

The West End Baptist Sunday-school elected the following officers at its annual meeting last night: Superintendent, W. M. Rucker; Assistant, R. W.
Krusse; Secretary, R. M. Wharton; Assistant, A. R. Perkins; Treasurer, J. W.
Holt; Musical Director, C. W. Crider; Assistant, W. H. Mackaway; Priest, Miss Blanch Pillow; Librarian, James Johnson; Assistants, J. C. Wright, W.
T. Marshall, Frank McCulloch; City Mission Committee, T. C. Crowder and C. A. Kruse; Executive Committee, E.
S. Walsh.

Captain and Mrs. Parker, who have come to Petersburg to take charge of the Salvation Army work, will hold their welcome meeting in the Army Hall next Sunday.

A pretty marriage took place at the First Baptist Church last evening, when Miss Ellen McManaway, daughter of Mrs. Maria J. McManaway, of this city, became the bride of Rev.
J. G. Harris, of Brinkley, Ark.

MANN ORATOR ON PETERSBURG DAY

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., November 21.—With appropriate exercises, military parades, band concerts and closing in the evening with the Old Virginia ball, Petersburg, Pulaski, Manassas, Wythe-ville and Bristol celebrated to-day at the Jamestown Exposition, the attendance being the largest of the entire week.

Six hundred joined in the celebration of Petersburg Day in the early afternoon, which was the feature of the day. The orators were Lieutenant-Governor Ely, Judge Mann, Judge Hodges Mann and Mayor Jones. Judge Mann was orator of the day. Over 1,000 were down from that city.

Judge Mann marshaled battalion after battalion of facts, figures and logic to show the greatness of the Cockade City, declaring their manufacturers annually produced $15,000,000 worth of merchandise, and that the jobbing trade of the city is estimated at $12-000,000. He declared that 80 per cent. of the plug tobacco exported is made in Petersburg.

Historic City.

Judge Mann also spoke eloquently of the history of Petersburg. It being founded shortly after Jamestown, furnishing one company in the Revolutionary War and two companies to help General Jackson and 2,000 soldiers for General Lee. He also recounted the memorable battles in and around the historic city.

Mayor Jones presided and introduced Judge Mann. Governor Elyson welcomed the visitors in a brief address.

A marvellous feature of the day was the fact that two events were scheduled for the Auditorium at the same hour, and that at first an admission of 10 cents was demanded for admission, causing scores to leave. The error was quickly remedied.

The first exercises of the day were held at 11:30 o'clock in the Auditorium, and the following program was carried out:

Address of welcome, by Harry St.
George, Tucker president of the Jamestown Exposition Company.

Address of welcome, by Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Elyson, of Virginia.

Address by O. C. Brewer, of Pulaski.

Address by Mayor C. A. Sinclair, of Manassas.

The addresses were interspersed with music by Ellery's Italian Band.

Preceding the Auditorium exercises at 10 o'clock, a concert was rendered by Ellery's Band, and this splendid musical organization quickly had thousands gathered about the bandstand.

At 11 o'clock there was a parade of the United States troops stationed at the exposition on Lee Parade, and it was reviewed by President Tucker, Lieutenant-Governor Elyson, O. C.
Brewer and Mayor Sinclair.

A song recital at 4 o'clock, by William Augustus Benjamin, followed the Petersburg exercises.

LIVELY MAN-HUNT IN NORFOLK NAVY-YARD

Negro Charged With Attempted Murder Leads Party a Merry Chase.

HE JUMPED OVERBOARD

He Hid Under Dock, and When Finally Discovered Wounded by Marines.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., November 21.—An exciting man-hunt occurred in the Norfolk navy yard this afternoon. Attempting to murder his sister-in-law in Norfolk county, was the fugitive, and a large part of the navy yard force, including laborers, mechanics, clerks and naval officers, were in pursuit.
The hunted man was shot twice before he was captured.

County Constable Dennis had Sills in charge, headed for the Norfolk county jail. When passing the navy yard Sills made a break for liberty.
He entered the yard and led the chase until the new stone dry-dock had been reached. There Dennis overtook him, but could not subdue him. The officer tried to shoot the negro, who was trying to use a knife, but Sills was the trigger. Sills next bit the officer's finger and again escaped. Dennis ordering him to halt, the negro jumped overboard and swam far under a pier, most of the flooring of which was torn up before he was found two hours later.

Lost By a Nose.

The navy yard force had collected when Sills jumped overboard, and all joined in the search for him. When about given up for lost, the nose of Sills, beside a pile, was seen sticking out of the water. Seeing this, they again discovered Sills tried to again escape by swimming. Then, under orders of an officer, the marines fired, but not to kill. One bullet passed through Sills's shoulder and another through a leg. Badly but not fatally wounded, the man was then fished out of the water as a thousand men looked on.

POLITICAL DEAL

Government Closes Revenue Office at Bristol—Said to Be Political Move.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BRISTOL, VA., November 21.—The internal revenue office in Bristol, with Edward E. Butler collector, was discontinued to-day, in accordance with an order from Commissioner Capers, who has directed the collector to prepare the office furniture and records for shipment to Nashville on Saturday, the 23d inst., where they will be added to the office of the consolidated districts of Tennessee, with Robert S. Sharp, of Chattanooga, as collector. So far here, Mr.
Butler is the only person connected with the Bristol office who has been placed a position under the new collector. He will continue the office of chief deputy under Mr. Sharp. The friends of Congressman Brownlow are in the line of duty, and will resist the consolidation, declaring it to be only a political move, designed to give Secretary Cortelyou the Tennessee office in the next Republican National Convention.

Tuesday night, the 12th, was heard before Justice T. D. Coghill yesterday, the decision of the grand jury at the December term of the court. The evidence against the parties is mostly circumstantial, but it is generally thought that they are guilty. John Smith claims as his home Crisfield, Md.; Geo. W. Burt, Philadelphia, and Edwin Burt, no special home, but hailed from Cleveland, O.

Branch, the negro who was found in the room of Mrs. George Kingrey early one morning sitting on a trunk with his shoes off, was given one year in the penitentiary by the Corporation story of getting a knockout drink at a negro restaurant, being robbed of $25 and declared he did not know what happened afterwards, which was the cause of the light punishment.

STAUNTON WANTS
BETTER MAIL SERVICE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] STAUNTON, VA., November 21.—The Staunton board of trade appointed a committee to-day to try to secure better mail facilities, as the change of the Chesapeake and Ohio schedule has greatly inconvenienced business men.
The board also appointed a committee to ask the Federal Government to city by a commission, and to report to the board.

neral exhibit at Jamestown, was in Southwest Virginia this week in the interest of a plan to have the mineral exhibit of the State made a permanent exhibit, to be located in Richmond. The coal and iron operators in this end of the State will be glad to donate their exhibits to be used in a permanent exhibit. It is understood that the next Legislature will be asked to appropriate $25,000 to pay for the transportation of the exhibit to Richmond and installing it there.

NEGRO MURDERER GETS FIFTEEN YEARS

Stabbed Swedish Sailor to Death on the Chesapeake and Ohio Pier.

WOMAN GAVE HIM AWAY

Man Who Killed Negro for Stealing Potatoes Is Acquitted.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., November 21.—Clarence Penn, a negro, who killed a Swedish sailor, named Isaachsen several weeks ago by stabbing him in the neck, was found guilty of murder in the second degree and given fifteen years in the penitentiary by the jury in the Circuit Court of Warwick county last night. The negro maintained his innocence until Lillian West, a woman arrested as an accessory, turned State's evidence and told the whole story of the killing.

Isachsen was killed near Chesapeake and Ohio pier 12, as he was passing along the dark river road, on his way to this city from his vessel.
He was accosted by the West woman, who made the sailor angry and received a kick in the stomach. The woman called to Penn, who drew a pocket knife and stabbed the sailor, leaving him on the ground mortally wounded. The murderers escaped, but were caught later by the police of this city.

Frank Lipscomb, who shot and killed a negro named Junior Hardy, whom he caught stealing his father's potatoes, was acquitted by the jury.

Plans are being formulated here for a trip to the Jamestown Exposition, to be made by the public school children one day next week. It is proposed to have all the schools closed for one day in order that the pupils may visit the fair and pay especial attention to the History and Social Economy Buildings.
